

2016 Heritage Award Recipients

Architectural Conservation & Craftmanship Award

- Brett Puckrin & Tanya Latreille – in recognition of brick restoration on the Currie Block (209 Queen Street)
- Wayne Luke – in recognition of windows & parapets on the Wm L Parrish Block
- Anne Hall & Ross Crust – in recognition of heritage conservation of a heritage home (206 Cochrane Street)
- Old Flame Brewery, Jack Doak – in recognition of Façade restoration of Ontario Carriage Works (135 Perry Street)

Media Award Recipient

- Focus Magazine – MaryAnn Fleming Publisher/Editor for continuing coverage of heritage matters

Publication & Research Award

- Paul Arculus, Author Pine Grove Cemetery and a history of St. John's Blackstock publications
- Grant Karcich, Author Scugog Carrying Place, A Frontier Pathway

Agricultural Heritage Award

- Willowtree Farm for integrated agricultural practices

Heritage Integration Award

- Guy Latreille 172 Water Street, for exterior enhancements of a contributing building in the heritage conservation district
- Brett Puckrin & Tanya Latreille for sympathetic restoration to a non-contributing heritage building addition on the Currie Block
- Harold & Brenda Sturm 232 Casimir, for sensitivity to scale, and its use of vernacular architectural features reflective of the historic neighbourhood
- Glenn & Kelly Evans 119 Perry Street, for new build construction blending with the heritage character of a specific area

Mayor's Community Heritage Award

- Pine Ridge Garden Club for care of the heritage gardens at the Scugog Shores Museum Village