

Heritage Award nominees for 2019

Architectural Conservation & Craftsmanship Award

- Brocks Department Store – Julie Brock (160 Queen Street) - in recognition of The Parapet Restoration on Brocks Department Store.
- Chris Fleming, Fleming Heritage Restoration – in recognition of All the restoration work done within the Heritage Conservation District.
- Hank's Pastries – Angie and Ken DeJong (204 Queen Street) – in recognition of The Parapet Restoration on Hanks Pastries.
- Michael Konopaski 250 Queen Street – in recognition of the front porch restoration at 250 Queen Street.

Media Award

- Peter Hvidsten – Rewind books - in recognition of the publication of the Rewind Scugog series of books.
- 150th anniversary – Greenbank Hall Celebration in recognition of the 150th Anniversary for Greenbank Hall.

Publication & Research Award

- Ms. Janice Sandy –Burton history - in recognition of the research done on the History of Burton Township.

Agriculture Heritage Award – None for 2019

Heritage Integration Award

- Edie and Dale Forsyth - 99 Crandell in recognition of – a renovation that successfully adapted and retained the heritage character of the home.

Mayor's Community Heritage Award

- Dave Robinson – 100th Armistice Anniversary – in recognition of – the 100th Armistice Anniversary Event.

Heritage Lifetime Award

- Paul Arculus – in recognition of –
Your years of dedication, impact and contribution to promoting heritage in our community.